

Artistar Jewels 2017

Call for artists

Artistar Jewels officially opens the door to talented jewellery designers, also unveiling interesting news of the project at its fourth edition.

Artistar Jewels restarts and unveils the details of its fourth edition. It's a very important appointment that from the 23rd to the 26th of February is showing the protagonists of the contemporary jewelry scene in the special location of Palazzo Giureconsulti at the hearth of Milan.

Artistar Jewels represents a benchmark in the contemporary jewelry scenario. The Project selects more than 200 creations, chosen according to their artistic value, the technical experimentation and the stylistic research. In so doing it serves as an international window for famous artists and as a springboard for the emerging ones.

In order to participate to Artistar Jewels 2017, please present your submission to selezione@artistar.it before the 21st of October. You can consult the competition announcement on www.artistar.it
