Artistar Jewels restarts and unveils the details of its fourth edition- from the 23rd to the 26th of February 2017- showing the protagonists of the contemporary jewellery scene in the evocative location of Palazzo Giureconsulti at the hearth of Milan. Now Artistar Jewels opens officially the door to talented jewellery artists and will select more than 200 creations, chosen according to their artistic value, technical experimentation and stylistic research.

Founded in 2012 in Milan by designer Enzo Carbone, Artistar Jewels is the annual event promoting the contemporary jewel for stablish and emerging artist. Artistar group, composed of artists, architects, journalists and communication professionals, aims at being a benchmark in the contemporary jewel sector by promoting designers and artists both in Italy and abroad.

This year again, the selected designers will have their creations featured in the book Artistar Jewel 2017, published by Logo Fausto Lupetti Editore. The volume will be available both on the national and international market: it will be sold in Italy and in the European main capitals and will also be delivered to more than 5,000 professionals in the sector.

Artistar Jewels's fourth edition aims at showing the pluralism of the contemporary jewel during an historical period of huge cultural and artistic flourishing. Artistar Jewels enhances the contemporary culture of jewellery, and tries to express in each edition a remarkable heritage of beauty and knowledge.

Three winners will have the chance to participate for free to Artistar Jewels 2018 and will also have a dedicated area in the 2018 book special contents. Additionally, for the first time, their creations will be among the thirty ones chosen by Artistar.it team to be the protagonists of a moving international exhibit. This multi-shows event will be organized in different prestigious art galleries.

Winners announcement ceremony will be in February 2017 during the February edition of the Milan Fashion Week in Palazzo Giureconsulti.

In order to participate to Artistar Jewels 2017, please present your submission to selezione@artistar.it within the 5th of August 2016.
