DESIGN WEEK 2017

All the events of the week, between the Salone and the Fuorisalone.

#POLIdesignWeek

POLI.design has joined again Milano Design Week with several events between the Salone and the Fuorisalone. Many initiatives located in Fiera Milano and in the city's design districts to tell POLI.design's activity, through the projects realized by the students, by the winners of the competitions promoted during the year and by the voice of some of the Specializing Masters and Courses Professors.

With offerings that include more than 50 educational products, including University Specializing Masters and advanced professional training programs, Design Competitions and special events all devoted to exploring design culture across the board, POLI.design offers young graduates and professionals many possibilities for updating and deepening their knowledge in various fields: from Product to Interior and Fashion, from Communication to Services, from Cultural Planning to Management.
